EDUCATION

BA, History, SOUTH DAKOTA STATE, '10

Jimmy Rogers begins his first season directing Cougar Football after being named head coach Dec. 28, 2024. Rogers becomes the 35th head coach in program history.

Rogers arrives at WSU having spent the last 12 years at South Dakota State University, the past two as head coach. In those two years, he guided SDSU to a 27-3 record, led the Jackrabbits to the 2023 FCS Championship and reached the FCS semifinals this past season.

In 2024, Rogers led the Jackrabbits to a 12-3 overall record, including a semifinal showing in the 2024 FCS Championship. By earning a share of the 2024 Missouri Valley Football Conference title, SDSU secured three-consecutive league titles for the first time since 1961-63. Through the end of the regular season, the Jackrabbit defense led all FCS schools in scoring defense (12.4 ppg), was fourth in total defense (272.9 ypg) and sixth in rushing defense (90.5 ypg). Offensively, SDSU ranked first in sacks allowed (0.5 pg) and tackles for loss allowed (2.58 pg), while being ranked third in running offense (243.2 ypg), seventh in scoring offense (36.6 ppg) and ninth in total offense (441.9 ypg).

During the season, nine players earned a total of 27 All-American honors, led by senior center Gus Miller who earned first-team honors by four different media outlets.

In his first season as a head coach, Rogers led the Jackrabbits to their second consecutive Football Championship Subdivision national title and finished the 2023 campaign with a perfect 15-0 record. SDSU held the top spot in both major FCS polls throughout the 2023 season and carried a 29-game winning streak — the third-longest winning streak in subdivision history — into his second season. He became the second SDSU head coach in as many years to be honored with the Eddie Robinson Award as the top FCS coach, joining his mentor, John Stiegelmeier, in 2022.

SDSU led the FCS ranks 10 different statistical categories on both sides of the ball in 2023, most notably scoring defense (9.3 points per game), total defense (257.2 yards per game), team passing efficiency (174.26) and third-down conversion percentage (.535). The Jackrabbits raised their level of play during their four-game postseason run, outscoring the opposition by a combined 146-15, including posting a pair of shutouts.

Six members of the 2023 team were honored on All-America teams, including Walter Payton Award winner Mark Gronowski at quarterback. In addition, a total of eight players were either drafted or signed free agent NFL contracts.

Rogers also played an integral role in the Jackrabbits winning their first national title in football during the 2022 season by directing a defense that led the Football Championship Subdivision in rushing defense by allowing only 88.1 yards per game on the ground. SDSU tied for the FCS lead with 18 interceptions and also ranked second in total defense (274.1 yards per game), third in scoring defense (15.8 points per game) and fourth in turnovers gained (26).

The Jackrabbits finished the 2022 season on a 14-game winning streak and held the No. 1 ranking in both the Stats Perform media poll and FCS coaches' poll the final two months of the year.

Rogers was honored as the 2022 FCS Coordinator of the Year by FootballScoop.com, and also was selected to participate in the AFCA's 35 Under 35 Coaches Leadership Institute.

A former standout defensive player for South Dakota State, Rogers returned to his alma mater in June 2013 to coach the Jackrabbit linebackers. The 2022 campaign marked his first, and only, season as the team's sole defensive coordinator duties after sharing the role for three seasons. He previously was elevated to assistant head coach after the 2019 campaign.

In his first season, Rogers directed a linebacking corps whose three regular starters — R.C. Kilgore, T.J. Lally and Charles Elmore — combined for 290 tackles. Kilgore led the team with 134 tackles and also led the nation with five fumble recoveries en route to first-team all-Missouri Valley Football Conference recognition.

Rogers again coached a 100-tackle performer in 2014 as Lally led the squad with 117 tackles en route to earning second-team all-MVFC recognition.

The 2015 Jackrabbit linebacking crew again featured the squad's top two tacklers as Lally turned in the third 100-tackle season of his career with a team-best 102 stops and Jesse Bobbit added 97 tackles. Lally received second-team all-MVFC recognition for the third time, while Bobbit was an honorable mention selection.

Under Rogers' guidance, Christian Rozeboom burst onto the Football Championship landscape in 2016 by being named MVFC Freshman of the Year and finishing second in the balloting for the STATS FCS Jerry Rice Award as the top freshman in the Football Championship Subdivision after tallying a team-best 132 tackles. In addition, fellow linebackers Jesse Bobbit and Dallas Brown capped strong careers in 2016. A second-team all-league selection, Bobbit ranked second on the squad with 110 tackles, while Brown led the team with three interceptions.

Rozeboom anchored the Jackrabbit linebacking corps over the next three seasons as he registered 100-plus tackles each year in becoming the SDSU career tackles leader with 475. He also earned first-team all-MVFC honors four times and was a three-time All-America selection. A multiple-time finalist for the Buck Buchanan Award as the top defensive player in the FCS ranks, Rozeboom would later sign a free agent contract with the Los Angeles Rams.

Besides Rozeboom's team-leading 111 tackles, fellow starting linebackers Seven Wilson (83 tackles) and Logan Backhaus (79 tackles) ranked second and third, respectively, on the team in 2019. Backhaus also shared the team lead with four interceptions and three forced fumbles.

In taking on a new and expanded role in 2019, Rogers helped direct a Jackrabbit defense that ranked in the top three of the MVFC in seven different defensive categories, including a second-place showing in total defense (294.8 yards per game) and third in scoring defense (16.7 points per game).

Rogers' linebacking corps again earned multiple awards en route to the FCS title game during the 2020-21 season that was moved to the spring. The team's starters ranked as the top three tacklers during the 10-game season as Adam Bock (74 tackles), Logan Backhaus (72 tackles) and Preston Tetzlaff (70 tackles) paced the squad. Backhaus was honored on a number of All-America teams, while Bock was a freshman All-America honoree and Tetzlaff was awarded the NCAA Elite 90 Award at the national championship.

Jackrabbit linebackers were again the team's top two tacklers during the 2021 season as football returned to the fall. Sophomore Adam Bock registered a team-high 125 tackles and Isaiah Stalbird was second on the squad with 73 total stops. Bock was a late addition to the list of finalists for the Buck Buchanan Award and received All-America honors from several organizations after earning first-team all-MVFC recognition.

Rogers coached a 100-tackle linebacker in eight of his 10 seasons leading the position group.

Depth within the linebacking corps was key to the Jackrabbits' success as the defense overcame injuries to several players at various points of the 2022 season. Eight different players drew starting assignments at linebacker, with transfer Jason Freeman leading the team with 84 tackles. Bock, who repeated as a first-team all-MVFC selection despite missing the second half of the conference season due to injury, ranked second on the squad with 76 tackles, with Stalbird ranking third with 55 stops. Tucker Large, who split time between linebacker and safety, joined Freeman on the MVFC All-Newcomer Team.

Earlier during his tenure with the Jackrabbits, Rogers helped mentor special teams units that consistently ranked among the best in the FCS ranks. SDSU ranked in the top five nationally among FCS programs for blocked kicks two seasons in a row (2017, 2018) and also ranked seventh in kickoff returns during the 2017 season with an average of 25.13 yards per return as Cade Johnson set a single-season SDSU record with 839 kickoff return yards and returned a pair of kicks for touchdowns en route to being named to a pair of freshman All-America squads.

A native of Hamilton, Arizona, Rogers previously served as a graduate assistant at Florida Atlantic University in Boca Raton, Florida. He spent the fall of 2012 as an offensive graduate assistant, working with the offensive line. In the spring of 2013, he transitioned back to the defensive side of the ball as he worked with the team's linebackers.

Immediately after his collegiate playing career ended, Rogers spent two seasons as a graduate assistant at South Dakota State, working with the team's defensive backs in 2010 and linebackers in 2011. He also assisted with the special teams units both seasons.

As a player, Rogers lettered for the Jackrabbits from 2006-09 and was a two-time all-conference selection. He led both the team and the Great West Football Conference with 110 tackles in 2007 as South Dakota State claimed the league title and Rogers was a first-team all-GWFC selection. He again led the squad in tackles in 2008 with 93 en route to earning second-team all-Missouri Valley Football Conference honors.

He was a captain on the Jackrabbits' first FCS playoff team in 2009, recording 66 tackles his senior season to finish his four-year career with 312 stops in 46 games. He also intercepted three passes and forced three fumbles in an SDSU uniform. Bottom of Form

Rogers and his wife, Haley, have two children, a daughter, Reese, and son, Trace.

DANNY FREUND

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR / QUARTERBACKS
FIRST YEAR

Freund arrives in Pullman after one season on Rogers staff at South Dakota State, where he served as co-offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach during the 2024 season. In 2024, the Jackrabbit offense finished fourth in scoring offense (36.7 ppg), third in rushing offense (236.1 ypg) and 12th in total offense at 434.1 ypg). SDSU's offense scored 40-plus points in eight contests, including three of 50-plus. Senior quarterback Mark Gronowski finished 17th and 18th nationally in passing yards (2,719) and passing touchdowns (18), respectively, en route to Stats Perform FCS All-America honors.

Prior to SDSU, Freund sent 13 seasons coaching at his alma mater, the University of North Dakota, serving as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach from 2018-23. During his time as the offensive coordinator, the Fighting Hawks reached the FCS Playoffs four out of his last five seasons. He helped lead the Fighting Hawks to five Football Championship Subdivision playoff appearances, as well as a share of the Missouri Valley Football Conference title during the 2020-21 spring season.

Prior to his role as offensive coordinator, Freund had stints coaching UND's running backs, fullbacks and wide receivers. He also held the title of associate head coach during the 2023 season, when UND averaged 34.1 points per game en route to a postseason berth. He was honored by RII Sports Technology with its GRAPHITE Award, which recognizes excellence and efficiency in play-calling.

Freund was a two-year team captain (2007, 2008) as UND made the transition from NCAA Division II, compiling a 16-6 record as the starting quarterback. He set multiple school passing records before embarking on his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Carthage College in Kenosha, Wisconsin, in 2010. Freund returned to Grand Forks and UND in 2011.

Freund earned a banking and financial economics degree from UND in 2008 and completed his master's degree in educational leadership in the spring of 2013. He was a two-time All-Academic honoree (2007, NCC; and 2008, Great West) during his college days and was named to the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame Hampshire Honor Society as a senior.

Freund and his wife, Ann, have two daughters, Jossy and Jillian, and son, Tucker.

Jesse Bobbit begins his first season as WSU's defensive coordinator/linebackers coach on Head Coach Jimmy Rogers staff, though it is not his first time on the Cougar staff. Bobbit was a defensive graduate assistant and quality control coach during the 2020 and 2021 seasons. He primarily worked with the linebackers for a WSU program that earned a berth in the Sun Bowl during the 2021 campaign.

Bobbit arrived in Pullman having spent the past three seasons at his alma mater, South Dakota State, the last two as defensive coordinator/linebackers coach. This past season, the SDSU defense ranked first in scoring defense at 13.9 ppg, the second-straight season leading the nation, holding seven opponents to 10 points or less. Additionally, the Jackrabbits ranked fifth in FCS in total defense, allowing 283.7 ypg, fifth in rushing defense (93.2 ypg) and 17th in passes intercepted (14).

Bobbit mentored two linebackers to first-team All-America accolades in Adam Bock and Caleb Francl, while defensive backs Dalys Beanum and Tucker Large also earned All-America honors.

In 2023, his first season as defensive coordinator, the Bobbit-led Jackrabbit defense held the opposition to an average of 9.3 points per game, a standard that ranked more than five points per game better than the next closest Football Championship Subdivision squad. SDSU held six of their 15 opponents without a touchdown and shut out an opponent three times, including twice in the postseason, as the Jackrabbits held a 146-15 scoring advantage in four playoff games en route to their second consecutive national title.

In addition to leading the FCS ranks in scoring defense during the 2023 season, SDSU also led the subdivision in total defense (257.2 yards per game), turnovers gained (29) and red-zone defense (.588). The Jackrabbits also ranked second for passes intercepted (19) and rushing defense (89.6 yards per game).

Individually, linebackers held the top four tackling totals during the 2023 campaign, led by All-American Jason Freeman with 105 stops. Freeman was a first-team all-Missouri Valley Football Conference selection who later earned third-team All-America recognition from Stats Perform. Isaiah Stalbird, who was second on the squad with 80 tackles, was a second-team all-MVFC honoree and later signed a free agent contract with the New Orleans Saints.

Bobbit returned to the South Dakota State football program in February 2022 and coached the team's safeties during the Jackrabbits' first national championship campaign. He also served as the Jackrabbits' recruiting coordinator for one season.

During the 2022 season, the Jackrabbits led the Football Championship Subdivision with 18 interceptions, with the team's safeties combining for seven of those pickoffs. SDSU also led the FCS ranks in rushing defense (88.1 yards per game) and finished third in scoring defense (15.8 points per game).

In addition, redshirt freshman Tucker Large was honored on the 2022 MVFC All-Newcomer Team after contributing at both safety and linebacker

A linebacker for the Jackrabbits from 2013-16, Bobbit began his collegiate coaching career as a graduate assistant at SDSU in 2019, before moving on the Washington State for the 2020 and 2021 seasons.

A team captain at SDSU during his senior season, Bobbit registered 306 career tackles, including racking up a career-high 110 tackles in 2016, when he was a second-team all-Missouri Valley Football Conference selection.

Bobbit, who twice was honored on the Missouri Valley Football Conference All-Academic Team, graduated from SDSU in 2017 with a degree in physical education and a minor in health education. For his first two years out of college, he taught elementary physical education in the Omaha Metro area and served as an assistant football coach at Bellevue West High School.

PAT CASHMORE

SPECIAL TEAMS COACH / FIRST YEAR

Pat Cashmore begins his first season in Pullman as special teams coordinator on Jimmy Rogers staff, a similar role he held under Rogers at South Dakota State.

Cashmore arrived in Pullman following two seasons at SDSU. In 2024, the Jackrabbits finished second nationally in net punting at 43.04 ypp while it matched that ranking in punt return defense, allowing just 0.46 yards per return. Kickoff return defense finished the year 12th in FCS, allowing just 16.35 yards per return. Punter Hunter Dustman, who averaged 44.15 ypp, earned All-MVFC Honorable Mention honors.

In his first season, solid play on special teams contributed to the Jackrabbits' success as they pursued a second consecutive Football Championship Subdivision national title in 2023. SDSU ranked sixth in both punt returns (17.63 yards per attempt) and punt return defense (2.9 yards per attempt), while also ranking among the national leaders with four blocked kicks.

Individually, Tucker Large ranked third nationally with an average of 18.9 yards per punt return and set an SDSU single-game record with 149 punt return yards against Drake en route to earning second-team all-Missouri Valley Football Conference honors as a return specialist. Hunter Dustman topped the 100-point mark for the second year in a row in the kicking department and also earned second-team all-conference recognition after averaging 43.5 yards per punt.

Long snapper Kaydon Olivia also was named to the all-MVFC Second Team and running back Amar Johnson was a first-team all-purpose back after leading the squad in kickoff returns.

Prior to his arrival in Brookings, Cashmore coached three seasons at Pittsburg State (Kan.), where his kickoff return units placed highly in the NCAA Division II rankings. The Gorillas recorded consecutive top-10 showings for kickoff returns, placing sixth in 2022 with an average of 25.4 yards per return after finishing 10th in 2021. In addition, Pitt State led the D-II ranks in kickoff return defense by allowing 12.7 yards per return during the 2022 campaign while advancing to the second round of the Division II playoffs.

Cashmore served two previous stints at the Division I level, serving as special teams quality control at Toledo from 2016-17 and as a special teams coordinator and offensive graduate assistant at Oklahoma State for two seasons (2018-19). Toledo captured the 2017 MAC Championship and Cashmore coached two all-conference performers on special teams.

At Oklahoma State, Cashmore created weekly special teams game plans and scouting reports, while assisting with running backs and wide receivers. The Cowboys won the Liberty Bowl to conclude the 2018 season and played in the Texas Bowl to close out the 2019 campaign.

Cashmore started his coaching career as a graduate assistant coach at Midland University in Fremont, Nebraska, from 2012-13, serving as outside linebackers coach. He then moved on Iowa Western Community College, where he served as special teams coordinator and defensive backs coach. Iowa Western advanced to the NJCAA national championship game his first season with the Reivers.

A native of Kansas City, Missouri, Cashmore played collegiately at Drake, where he was part of the 2011 Pioneer League championship team. He earned a bachelor's degree in business administration from Drake in 2011 and completed a master's degree in education from Midland in 2015.

Mike Banks begins his first season as Washington State's cornerbacks coach on Head Coach Jimmy Rogers staff.

Banks spent the previous two seasons in a similar capacity on Rogers' staff at South Dakota State. This past year, Banks guided a unit that contributed to a defense that finished first in scoring defense at 13.9 ppg, the second-straight season leading the nation, holding seven opponents to 10 points or less. Additionally, the Jackrabbits ranked fifth in FCS in total defense and 17th in passes intercepted (14).

Banks oversaw the development of First-Team All-American Dalys Beanum who registered 46 tackles, one interception and four pass breakups as one of the defensive leaders. On the other side, Colby Humphrey garnered All-MVFC Second-Team honors after collecting 40 tackles, one interception and five PBUs.

During the 2023 season, Banks mentored a group of cornerbacks who accounted for eight of the team's 19 interceptions — a total that ranked second in the Football Championship Subdivision. The Jackrabbits also led the FCS ranks in scoring defense (9.3 points per game), total defense (257.2 yards per game) and red-zone defense (.588).

Individually, Beanum earned honorable mention all-MVFC recognition and paced the Jackrabbits with five interceptions, including one in each of the team's playoff games en route to a second consecutive national title. The team's other starting corner, DyShawn Gales, was a second-team all-MVFC selection and later signed as a free agent with the Cleveland Browns.

Banks spent the previous five seasons (2018-22) as defensive backs coach at his alma mater and MVFC rival Illinois State. The 2019 edition of the Redbirds ranked third among Football Championship Subdivision teams with 19 interceptions while ranking No. 11 in total defense and setting a team record with 52 sacks. Under his guidance, two Redbird players earned all-MVFC recognition with safety Luther Kirk receiving All-America honors.

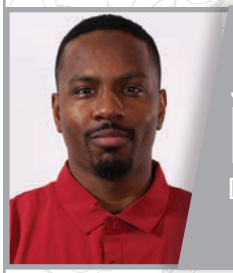
In addition, Banks was selected to attend the 2022 AFCA 35 Under 35 Coaches Leadership Institute and also served as a Bill Walsh Fellowship Coaching Intern with the Los Angeles Chargers in the summer of 2020.

Prior to joining the Illinois State staff full time, Banks worked two seasons with the Redbirds' football staff as a graduate manager, while working towards completion of his m[a]ster's degree.

As a player Banks was a four-year starter at cornerback for the Redbirds from 2011-14 and started all 50 career games in which he played. He earned second-team all-MVFC honors in 2014 and was instrumental in the Redbirds' journey to the FCS National Championship game that season with 93 tackles and 19 passes defended (17 pass breakups, 2 interceptions). A member of the MVFC All-Newcomer Team in 2011 and an honorable mention all-league performer in 2012, Banks ranks No. 3 all-time at Illinois State in career passes defended with 46.

Banks received his bachelor's degree in health education from Illinois State in December 2015 and his master's degree in psychology of sport and physical activity from Illinois State in May 2018.



JALON BIBBS

DEFENSIVE LINE / FIRST YEAR

Bibbs arrived in Pullman having spent the past two seasons in a similar role on Rogers staff at South Dakota State after joining the Jackrabbit staff in the spring of 2023.

During the 2024 season, where SDSU reached the FCS Championship semifinals, the defensive line led the way as SDSU led all of FCS in defensive scoring at 13.9 ppg, while also ranking fifth in rushing defense at 93.2 ypg allowed. As a group, the d-line collected 24 sacks and 37 tackles-for-loss, led by all-MVFC honorable mention tackle Kobe Clayborne, with 4.5 sacks and 5.5 TFLs.

In helping guide the Jackrabbits to their second consecutive Football Championship Subdivision national title during the 2023 campaign, Bibbs directed a unit that contributed greatly to the Jackrabbits leading the FCS in numerous team defensive categories, including scoring defense (9.3 points per game), total defense (257.2 yards per game), turnovers gained (29) and red-zone defense (.588).

As a whole, the Jackrabbit front four combined for 22 sacks and 46.5 tackles for loss. Fourteen different defensive linemen registered at least one tackle for loss.

Individually, defensive end Cade Terveer was a first-team all-Missouri Valley Football Conference selection after posting a team-high 7.5 sacks and defensive tackle Ryan Van Marel earned second-team all-MVFC honors.

Prior to South Dakota State, Bibbs coached the defensive line at perennial NCAA Division II national contender Grand Valley State, which compiled a 40-8 record over four seasons and made three postseason appearances. In 2019, the Lakers ranked in the top 10 of six different defensive categories, including leading the D-II ranks in red-zone defense and fewest passing touchdowns allowed. While at GVSU, Bibbs mentored a total of 15 all-conference defensive linemen and two All-Americans.

In addition to his on-field duties at GVSU, Bibbs served as the program's academic and travel coordinator.

At SDSU, Bibbs returned to the state in which he played his college ball and also previously coached. During the 2017 season, he coached the defensive line at his alma mater, Northern State, as the Wolves finished with a 6-5 record. Bibbs previously played at NSU from 2011-14.

Jake Menage enters his first season as Washington State's wide receivers coach on Jimmy Rogers staff, though he is familiar with the Cougar head coach having worked the past two seasons on the Cougar head coach's staff at South Dakota State.

In 2024, Menage oversaw a unit that contributed to an SDSU offense that finished 12 nationally in total offense at 434.1 ypg. He mentored the development of sophomore receiver Griffin Wilde, who posted season totals of 70 receptions for 1,147 yards and 12 touchdowns en route to earning All-America Second-Team honors by FCS Football Central. Wilde's totals ranked seventh in FCS for receiving yards and receiving touchdowns. Junior Grahm Goering contributed 25 receptions for 360 yards and five touchdowns.

Menage arrived at SDSU with a championship résumé of his own as he returned to Brookings to lead the Jackrabbit wide receivers prior to the 2023 season. Upon his return to Brookings as part of Jimmy Rogers' first coaching staff, Menage worked with twin brothers Jadon and Jaxon Janke, who both ended their careers in the all-time SDSU top 10 for receptions, receiving yards and receiving touchdowns. Jadon Janke was a first-team all-Missouri Valley Football Conference selection, while Jaxon Janke received honorable mention accolades. In addition, true freshman wide receiver Griffin Wilde earned a spot on the MVFC All-Newcomer Team.

A former Jackrabbit player and student coach, Menage served as the offensive coordinator at Northwestern College in Orange City, Iowa, during the 2022 season, helping direct the Red Raiders to an NAIA national title. Northwestern led the NAIA ranks in third-down efficiency (54.8 percent), while ranking second in total offense (467.6 yards per game) and third in scoring (43.7 points per game).

A finalist for NAIA Coordinator of the Year, Menage coached 10 all-conference selections and three All-Americans on a squad that posted a 13-1 record.

Menage previously coached at the Division I level during a three-year stint at Northern Illinois, where he coached the wide receivers and tight ends. He began his coaching career as a student assistant at SDSU during the 2018 spring season, following a playing career from 2013-17 in which he was recruited as a quarterback out of Springfield (Minn.) High School before moving to wide receiver.

In the fall of 2018, he moved on to Southwest Minnesota State as a graduate assistant, working with the team's running backs.

PORTLAND STATE AT WASHINGTON STATE

PULLMAN, Wash. – Redshirt-sophomore quarterback John Mateer threw for five touchdowns and 352 yards, and rushed for another score, as Washington State overcame an early deficit and cruised to a 70-30 win against the Portland State Vikings, Saturday, at Gesa Field in the season opener for both teams. "The biggest thing I told the team is the mission was to be 1-0, there was no score expectation, it was just to go out there and get the win and we did that," WSU Head Coach Jake Dickert said. "We're going to take a lot of positives from this game. We're also going to take a critical eye on what we need do to get better and be a team on the rise. Excited about the way we played. We had to respond in many different ways from special teams to offense to defense." Playing under a Heat Advisory with temperature rising into the 90s, and even hotter on the field, the Vikings wilted under the relentless pressure from the Cougars after taking a 7-0 lead less than two minutes into the game. WSU scored seven first-half touchdowns, all 30 yards or longer. The blitz started when Mateer connected with Kris Hutson for a 30-yard touchdown pass to tie the game. A 39-yard TD pass from Mateer to Tre Shackelford put the Cougars up for good and Mateer closed out the first quarter with a 58-yard touchdown pass to Kyle Williams that put WSU up 22-7 after a successful two-point conversion. After a Vikings' field goal, the Cougars returned to their big plays when freshman Wayshawn Parker scored on a 54-yard touchdown run, which was followed by a Mateer-to-Parker 52-yard touchdown connection. The defense got in the act when redshirt-junior Stephen Hall returned an interception 100 yards for a touchdown, the longest pick-six in program history. Mateer's six total touchdowns were the most by a Cougar quarterback in their first start going back to at least 1976. He added 55 yards rushing, including a 40-yard touchdown run that capped the Cougars' 49-point first-half scoring explosion. The Cougar offense rolled up 637 yards in total offense, including 224 yards rushing. Williams led a contingent of 10 WSU receivers who caught at least one pass with 141 yards. Parker rushed for 96 yards on eight carries. The 70 points scored by the Cougars tied for the sixth-most in program history and most since a 77-7 win over SW Louisiana in 1997.

TEXAS TECH AT WASHINGTON STATE

Sept. 7, 2024 • Gesa Field • Att.: 27,372 • TV: FOX

PULLMAN, Wash. – Quarterback John Mateer rushed for 197 yards and one touchdown, Wayshawn Parker burst 43 yards for a TD as part of a 14-point blitz in 16 seconds in the second quarter, and Washington State raced past Texas Tech 37-16 on Saturday night. Djouvensky Schlenbaker added a pair of short TD runs as the Cougars (2-0) dominated their highest-profile opponent to visit Pullman during this season of transition for Washington State. Texas Tech (1-1) was one of two Power Four opponents on the Cougars schedule. Mateer added one TD pass, but it was his legs that made the difference and he set a school record for yards rushing by a quarterback. Washington State finished with 301 yards rushing as a team, just the sixth time since 2000 the Cougars topped 300 yards on the ground and first since 2022. "They kept dropping eight on us so we just ran the ball and it was working," Mateer said. "The (offensive) line was getting after it. They're good. Like, straight up, the line's very good." The matchup of the two schools that were once coached by the late Mike Leach came on the weekend Leach was inducted into Washington State Athletics Hall of Fame. The schools each wore pirate themed stickers on the back of their helmets and Leach was recognized at halftime with the rest of the inductees. Leach would have loved the points on the board, although it wasn't exactly a game of offensive efficiency. The first half alone featured interceptions thrown by quarterbacks for both teams, and Texas Tech turned the ball over on downs twice in its own territory and had a critical fumble. "I do know this, coach Leach would be really disappointed: 'Why the hell are you running your starting quarterback?'" Washington State coach Jake Dickert joked. "I think a lot of things are possible for John." Texas Tech QB Behren Morton threw for 323 yards and one TD on 58 attempts, but was intercepted twice. Texas Tech played without star running back Tahj Brooks a week after he rushed for 153 yards and a touchdown in the Red Raiders' opening victory over Abilene Christian. The Red Raiders had a 20-yard double pass TD from Coy Eakin to Cam'Ron Valdez in the second quarter. Washington State took a 14-3 lead midway through the second quarter when Parker darted down the sideline for his long TD run. It came one play after Tech's Jalin Conyers was stopped on fourth-and-1. On Tech's next offensive play, Josh Kelly - who played last year for Washington State - was stripped by Buddah Al-Uqdah and returned the fumble to the 2. Schlenbaker immediately scored and Washington State's lead was 21-3. "I told him before that we were going to get after him. I was going to get after him," Al-Uqdah said. "And a few plays later I had my chance and I took full advantage of it." The Cougars extended the lead in the final seconds of the first half after Morton was intercepted. Kyle Williams caught a deflected pass in the corner of the end zone to give Washington State a 27-10 lead at the break. Texas Tech: The Red Raiders were too sloppy for the caliber of opponent. It started on the opening kickoff, which the Cougars chipped short in a modified onside attempt and recovered. Throw in the two turnovers on downs and the Red Raiders gave the ball away five times in the first half. Washington State: Mateer was terrific on the ground but the pass game must improve to have a chance next week. Mateer was 9-of-19 passing for 115 yards.

WASHINGTON STATE VS. WASHINGTON

SEATTLE – The night before the strangest Apple Cup in recent memory was contested at a neutral site and as a non-conference meeting for the first time in more than 60 years, Kingston Fernandez was given a task. Washington State head coach Jake Dickert wanted cigars for the coaching staff to celebrate should the Cougars prevail. And he tasked his assistant director of operations with making sure they were on hand. "I texted him yesterday and said, 'don't tell any of the coaches, but be ready,'" Dickert said, with his celebratory cigar sitting on the table in front of him. The Apple Cup was reclaimed by Washington State on Saturday behind three total touchdowns from quarterback John Mateer and a late goal-line stand in a 24-19 win over rival Washington. Mateer ran for two scores and threw for another, and the Cougars stopped Washington on a fourth-and-goal running play from the 1 with 1:07 remaining to take home the Apple Cup trophy for just the third time since 2008. It will be housed on the third floor of the Washington State football complex. Dickert would like to keep it there permanently. "I think we might retire this trophy. I think it's a Pac-12 trophy. I think that might stay in our place a long time and we'll bring a new one next year," Dickert said. The realignment chaos of the past year threatened to end the rivalry game with Washington now in the Big Ten and Washington State's Pac-12 uncertainty. The Cougars did find some future security this week with news that the Pac-12 is starting to rebuild thanks to the addition of four schools in 2026. But winning the game felt more meaningful to the Cougars after being left out in the reshuffling of schools, conferences and allegiances. And while purple may have outnumbered crimson in the crowd for the game played at Lumen Field, the Cougars were the ones celebrating on the field at the end. "Coach kept saying we worked 9 1/2 months for this moment, just trust our preparation and everything," Mateer said referencing last November's 24-21 loss to the Huskies. "Looking back on those 9 1/2 months to come out here and perform, and it wasn't our best, and we still got it done." Mateer ran for touchdowns of 23 and 25 yards and threw a 16-yard touchdown to Josh Meredith in the third quarter that gave the Cougars (3-0) a 24-16 lead. Mateer finished 17 of 34 passing for 245 yards and added 62 yards rushing. The 25-yard touchdown run came on third-and-20 in the final seconds of the first half and was a significant momentum swing that gave the Cougars a 17-13 halftime lead. The TD capped a 91-yard touchdown drive and Washington State never trailed again. "End of the half and end of the game, we let up seven points on third-and-20 and we didn't score on fourth-and-1 one the 1. That's the story," Washington coach Jedd Fisch said. The fourth-and-1 play Fisch referred to will be debated for a long time in Apple Cup lore. The Huskies reached the Washington State 10 and on third-and-goal, Denzel Boston was forced out at the 1, setting up the final play. Following a time out, the Huskies called an option play to the short-side of the field and Jonah Coleman had nowhere to go, getting stopped for a 2-yard loss. "(Washington's) not really a speed option team, for them to run that I was kind of surprised," Washington State defensive lineman Andrew Edson said. "But, you know, we stopped it." Coleman, who topped 100 yards rushing in the first two games of the season, was limited to 75 yards on 14 carries. Will Rogers threw for 314 yards and a touchdown for Washington (2-1) and Giles Jackson had eight catches for 162 yards, including a 31-yard TD in the first quarter. But the Huskies were forced to settle for field goals on three trips inside the Washington State 25 and that proved the difference. "It's never fun losing, especially to a rival, and just kind of feeling the pressure of the success some of my other teammates have had," Rogers said. "I want to win, that's all I really care about." The takeaway Washington State: The Cougars will lament some of their fourth-quarter execution on offense. Mateer threw one interception, nearly threw another, and the Cougars threw incomplete on third-and-10 with 3:46 left. Not only did Washington State not get a first down, but the clock stopped. Washington: After being fairly clean with penalties the first two games, Washington's discipline was awful. The Huskies were called for 16 penalties — third-most in school history — for 135 yards. Several were critical calls that kept drives alive for the Cougars.

SAN JOSE STATE AT WASHINGTON STATE

PULLMAN, Wash. – Redshirt-sophomore quarterback John Mateer accounted for 501 total yards and five touchdowns, as Washington State rallied from a 14-point fourth quarter deficit to defeat the San Jose State Spartans, 54-52 in two overtimes, Friday night, at Gesa Field. Washington State improved to 4-0 while San Jose State dropped to 3-1. "They found a way. That's what player-driven teams do," WSU Head Coach Jake Dickert said. "They never stopped believing tonight and I'm really proud of this football team." In a game that featured a combined 1,118 total yards from both offenses, it was the Cougars' defense that came up big in the end, stopping the Spartans' two-point conversion attempt in the second overtime when Quinn Roff sacked quarterback Emmett Brown. After each team exchanged interceptions in the first overtime, Dylan Paine scored on a seven-yard touchdown run and Mateer ran in the two-point conversion, which was confirmed by replay review, to put the Cougars up 54-46. Brown connected with Nick Nash on a four-yard touchdown pass to pull the Spartans within two before the Cougars' defensive stand. Down 24-17 at the half, San Jose scored 21 unanswered points in the third quarter to take a 38-24 lead into the fourth quarter. The Cougars responded with 19 unanswered points of their own to gain a 43-38 lead with 4:56 remaining in the game. The Spartans answered with an eight-play, 72-yard drive, capped by a 20-yard TD pass from Brown to TreyShun Hurry on fourth down. A successful two-point conversion gave San Jose a 46-43 lead with 26 seconds left in the game. Mateer engineered a four-play 40-yard drive that was capped by Dean Janikowski's game-tying 52-yard field goal as time expired in regulation. Mateer threw for 390 yards and four touchdowns and ran for 111 yards and a touchdown, as the Cougars rolled up 627 yards of total offense.

WASHINGTON STATE AT NO. 25 BOISE STATE

Sept. 28, 2024 • Albertsons Stadium • Att.: 37,711 • TV: FOX Sports 1

BOISE, Ida. – Ashton Jeanty ran for 259 yards and four touchdowns as No. 25 Boise State surged past Washington State 45-24 on Saturday night. Playing its first game as a ranked team since 2020, Boise State (3-1) pulled away in the fourth quarter against its future Pac-12 Conference rival. Washington State (4-1) had no answer for Jeanty - and no ground game of its own. Jeanty, who entered the game leading the nation in rushing yards per game with 195.3, wasted little time pilling up the yards. On Boise State's fifth play from scrimmage, he broke four tackles around the line of scrimmage before outracing the rest of the defense on a 64-yard TD run. He finished with 26 carries and had a 7-yard reception. The Cougars responded with a quick strike of theirs own when quarterback John Mateer needed only three plays to go 65 yards, firing a 14-yard TD pass to Cooper Mathers. Jeanty added a 14-yard touchdown run late in the second quarter to give the Broncos a 17-10 halftime lead. Despite stifling Boise State's offense early in the second half, Washington State coach Jake Dickert gambled on a fourth-and-inches from his own 27 late in the third quarter. But Boise State's defense stiffened, denying Mateer the half-yard he needed. Three plays later, Maddux Madsen hit Lauter on a 22-yard scoring strike to push Boise State's lead to 24-10 with 1:22 left in the third quarter. Then, after another Washington State touchdown halved the deficit, Jeanty ripped off another electrifying run, this time racing 59 yards by breaking three tackles and eluding another on the goal line to dive in for the score. Mateer threw for 327 yards and a pair of touchdowns. Wayshawn Parker led Washington State in rushing with 35 yards. Madsen threw for 184 yards and two touchdowns for Boise State. THE TAKEAWAY Boise State: The Broncos appear to be in the driver's seat for a playoff bid among the Group of 5 conferences-and on a collision course with Mountain West conference foe UNLV. The two teams clash on Oct. 25 and could meet again for the conference title with a playoff bid on the line. Washington State: The Cougars will use their off week to work on shoring up a porous defense that has given up 52 and 45 points, respectively, in their last two outings.

WASHINGTON STATE AT FRESNO STATE

Oct. 12, 2024 • Valley Children's Stadium • Att.: 41,031 • TV: FOX Sports 1

FRESNO, Calif. – Ethan Connor's 60-yard interception return for a touchdown gave Washington State a fourth-quarter comeback 25-17 victory at Fresno State Saturday evening. Fresno State held a 17-16 lead early in the fourth quarter before O'Connor's house call gave the Cougars a 22-17 lead with under seven minutes left. Dean Janikowski added a 23-yard field goal with 1:46 remaining for the eight-point advantage and the WSU defense turned the Bulldogs over on downs as time expired to give WSU their first 5-1 start since 2018. Cougar quarterback John Mateer rushed for 46 yards and a touchdown while freshman running back carried 12 times for 63 yards. Wideout Kris Hutson caught a team-high six passes for 45 yards and had a two-yard rushing touchdown.

Janikowski connected on both field goal attempts, hitting from 34 yards out in the third quarter before his 23-yarder capped the scoring. Janikowski also averaged over 51 yards on three punts and kicked off six times. Defensively, Buddah Al-Uqdah made a team-high seven tackles while Kyle Thornton and Tyson Durant each added five with Durant adding an interception for the second straight game. Keith Brown and Khalil Laufau each recorded a sack for the defense who picked off a pair of passes, recorded a pair of sacks and held an opponent under 20 points for the third time this season. Washington State took the opening kickoff and capped the opening 75-yard drive with a one-yard touchdown run by Mateer and Hutson's two-yard rushing score on an end-around gave the Cougars the lead later in the first quarter. WSU nearly took a lead into halftime but FSU made a diving interception in the end zone right before the half to keep the Cougar lead 13-6 at the break. The Bulldogs took a 14-13 lead with a touchdown midway through the third quarter, Janikowsi's first field goal allowed WSU to regain the lead but Fresno State's fourth-quarter 13-play drive was capped by a field goal for a 17-16 advantage. Minutes later, O'Connor stepped in front of a Bulldog pass attempt on the ensuing drive and raced 60 yards for the go-ahead score.

HAWAI'I AT WASHINGTON STATE

PULLMAN, Wash. – Redshirt-sophomore quarterback John Mateer accounted for 329 total yards and five touchdowns, and the Washington State defense forced three turnovers, as the Cougars cruised to a 42-10 Homecoming victory against the University of Hawai'i Rainbow Warriors, Saturday at Gesa Field. With the win, Washington State earned bowl eligibility improving its record to 6-1. Hawai'i dropped to 2-5. "We want to be more aggressive," WSU Head Coach Jake Dickert said. "After playing San Jose State and that run and shoot, we just came away saying 'we got to go attack,' then we came away with three sacks and three takeaways and a lot of them are effort plays. "Offense did a good job of taking those takeaways and turning them into points," Dickert added. "Great team football today." The Cougars, in their first home game since their 54-52 overtime victory against San Jose State, Sept. 20, rolled up 444 total yards. Mateer threw for 295 yards, connecting on 23 of 27 pass attempts, and three touchdowns. In addition, Mateer rushed for 34 yards and two touchdowns. As proficient as the Cougar offense was, the defense stymied Hawaii throughout the game, limiting the Rainbow Warriors to 300 total yards while recording three sacks and three turnovers that set up three of the Cougars' touchdowns. In addition, the WSU defense prevented Hawaii from converting a third or fourth down conversion in the game, 0-8 on third down and 0-1 on fourth. After a Hawai'i field goal on its opening possession, the Cougar offense answered with a 32-yard TD connection from Mateer to Carlos Hernandez to take a 7-3 lead in the first quarter. Two more Mateer touchdown passes followed in the second quarter, both set up by turnovers forced by the WSU defense. The first turnover occurred when Jamorri Colson stripped Hawaii receiver Nick Cernacle and Kapena Gushiken recovered the fumble. A nine-yard connection from Mateer to Cooper Mathers followed, extending the Cougars' lead to 14-3. Later in the second quarter, a Taariq Al-Uqdah interception set up the Cougars once again, and, once again, the offense took advantage when Mateer connected with Kris Hutson on a nine-yard touchdown pass to go into half with a 21-3 lead. Hawai'i opened the second half on a seven-play 75-yard drive, capped by a 17-yard touchdown pass from Brayden Schager to Tylan Hines to cut the deficit to 21-10. The Cougars erased any doubt by answering on their next possession with a 14-play, 75-yard drive, punctuated by a nine-yard touchdown run by Mateer. On the Rainbow Warriors' next possession, Parker McKenna sacked Schager forcing a fumble recovered by Bryson Lamb. WSU took advantage of the turnover when Mateer opened the fourth quarter with a 14-yard touchdown run and Leo Pulalasi scored on a three-yard touchdown run later in the fourth quarter to cap the game's scoring.

WASHINGTON STATE AT SAN DIEGO STATE

SAN DIEGO – Washington State used a pair of fourth-quarter touchdown drives to post a 29-26 road win over San Diego State at Snapdragon Stadium Saturday evening. WSU improved to 7-1 with their third fourth-quarter comeback win of the season to give them their best start since 2018. The Cougars trailed 26-14 early in the fourth quarter before John Mateer connected with Carlos Hernandez for a 34-yard touchdown and linebacker Buddah Al-Uqdah intercepted an Aztec pass inside WSU territory to set up the game-winning drive. Mateer capped a seven-play 63-yard drive with a two-yard rushing touchdown with 5:03 remaining and made it a three-point lead after catching the two-point conversion from wideout Kris Hutson. The Washington State defense forced a San Diego State punt with 2:19 remaining and the Cougar offense picked one first down before the Aztecs were called for roughing the punter with 22 seconds remaining, awarding WSU the game-sealing first down. The Cougars rushed for over 100 yards for the seventh time this season with Mateer rushing for a pair of scores, one and two yards, respectively. Mateer also threw for 257 yards including a pair of touchdowns, 26 yards to tight end Cooper Mathers and the fourth-quarter strike to Hernandez. The Cougar defense tallied season-highs of eight tackles-for-loss and four sacks including a career-high three from defensive tackle Ansel Din-Mbuh. Al-Uqdah's interception was WSU's 15th takeaway of the season, matching the 2023 total. The Cougars held a 14-12 lead at halftime but the Aztecs took a 19-14 lead midway through the third quarter after a WSU muffed punt. SDSU pushed their lead to 26-14 with an 11-play touchdown drive early in the fourth quarter before the Cougars began their comeback.

UTAH STATE AT NO. 21 WASHINGTON STATE

Nov. 10, 2024 • Gesa Field • Att.: 20,011 • TV: The CW

PULLMAN, Wash. – John Mateer threw four touchdown passes and ran for another score, Wayshawn Parker rushed for a career-best 149 yards on 11 carries and No. 20 Washington State rolled to a 49-28 victory over Utah State on Saturday night. Parker sprinted for a 75-yard touchdown and also plunged in from a yard out. Kyle Williams caught three TD tosses as the Cougars (8-1, No. 21 CFP) won their fourth straight game since a 45-24 loss at then-No. 25 Boise State. Mateer completed 18 of 24 passes for 179 yards without an interception and also ran for 55 yards on 13 attempts. Washington State racked up 303 yards on the ground and extended its best start to a season since 2018. "John is a tremendous player," Williams said. "He has great potential and I feel like he's going to be one of the best quarterbacks to play in college football. Seeing his growth through the first nine weeks has been amazing." Derrick Jameson had a late 72-yard touchdown run for the Aggies (2-7). Spencer Petras was 28-of-45 passing for 208 yards and two scores with an interception. Herschel Turner ran for 85 yards on 16 carries. Parker became the first Washington State running back to eclipse 100 yards rushing in a game since Nakia Watson ran for 116 against Arizona State on Nov. 12, 2022. Much of Parker's output came on his 75-yard touchdown run on the first play of the second half. "I'm really proud of him," Mateer said. "He's got a little burst when you let him break free." Washington State took the lead on its first possession when Mateer connected with Williams, who shook a tackle and ran away with a 17-yard score. Utah State answered on its next drive when Jack Hestera caught a 3-yard pass before diving into the end zone to even the score at 7. The Cougars pulled back in front early in the second quarter with a 1-yard run from Parker, capping a drive that went 85 yards on 12 plays. Williams caught a 14-yard touchdown pass for a 21-7 lead going into halftime. Parker ran up the middle for 75 yards to open the second half and Mateer scored on a 1-yard run later in the third quarter. Utah State scored its first touchdown since the first quarter when Bryson Barnes surged into the end zone on a 2-yard run, making it 35-14 going into the fourth. Mateer threw a 5-yard touchdown pass to Williams early in the fourth. Petras responded with a 12-yard touchdown pass to Kyrese White that made it 42-21. In the final two minutes, the Cougars scored on a 3-yard pass from Mateer to Cooper Mathers, and the Aggies added another touchdown on a 72-yard run from Jameson. Williams, whose three touchdowns were a career high, led the Cougars in receiving yards with 55 on five receptions. Carlos Hernandez hauled in four passes for 42 yards. "When you have a dynamic offense, sometimes you've got to take your turn, and it was Kyle's night," said Washington State coach Jake Dickert. "Kris Hutson has had his night, and Carlos has made some big plays and Wayshawn, that's part of being a mature offense." Grant Page had seven receptions for 54 yards for Utah State. Takeaways Utah State: The Aggies couldn't snap Washington State's winning streak, but coach Nate Dreiling's squad still posted four touchdowns and 395 yards. Washington State: Roughly half of Mateer's touchdowns have come on the ground this season, but the sophomore quarterback did most of his damage through the air against the Aggies. Mateer still extended his streak to four games with a rushing touchdown.

NO. 18 WASHINGTON STATE AT NEW MEXICO

ALBUQUERQUE – Devon Dampier scored on a 1-yard run with 21 seconds left and New Mexico beat No. 18 Washington State 38-35 on Saturday night for its first victory over a ranked team since 2003, dashing the Cougars' slim College Football Playoffs hopes. Dampier ran for 192 yards and two touchdowns on 27 carries and completed 11 of 25 passes for 174 yards and a touchdown. Eli Sanders added 108 yards and a touchdown on 13 carries for the Lobos (5-6). Dampier ran for 142 yards and both touchdowns in the second half. He moved New Mexico 75 yards on the winning drive after Washington State (8-2) took a 35-31 lead with 3:12 left on John Mateer's 37-yard touchdown pass to Kyle Williams. Mateer was 25 of 36 for 375 yards and four touchdowns. Williams had nine receptions for 181 yards and three touchdowns. New Mexico took a 30-28 lead with 4:40 left in the game on Luke Drzewiecki's 21-yard field goal. Trailing 28-14 at the half, New Mexico tied it in the third quarter on Dampier's 33-yard touchdown run and Sander's 26-yard scoring dash. Washington State dropped out of the College Football Playoffs race, while New Mexico remained in position to become bowl eligibility in coach Bronco Mendenhal's first season.

NO. 25 WASHINGTON STATE AT OREGON STATE

Nov. 23, 2024 • Reser Stadium • Att.: 38,008 • TV: The CW

CORVALLIS, Ore. – With a 55-yard field goal to cap a wild back-and-fourth game, Oregon State emerged as this season's de facto Pac-12 champions. Everett Hayes kicked a season-best 55-yard field goal with 20 seconds left and the Beavers snapped a five-game losing streak with a 41-38 victory over Washington State on Saturday night. Ben Gulbranson, who missed last week's shutout loss at Air Force with a concussion, threw for 294 yards and two touchdowns to lead the Beavers (5-6). Trent Walker caught 12 passes for 136 yards. "It kind of gets to a point in the game where you kind of look at the score and you realize, `Wow, it's going to come down to me,'" Hayes said. It was the second straight loss for the Cougars (8-3), who were coming off a 38-35 setback last weekend to New Mexico that dashed their hopes of possibly earning an at-large bid to the 12-team College Football Playoff. Washington State was as high as No. 18 in the CFP rankings before the loss. The Beavers and the Cougars were the last two teams remaining in the Pac-12 this season after realignment last year. While they had a scheduling agreement with the Mountain West for this season, they did not figure into that leagueâ€™s standings. With Oregon State in front 31-24 at the start of the fourth quarter, Cougars quarterback John Mateer ran for a 4-yard touchdown to tie the game. On Oregon State's next series, Taariq Al-Uqdah picked off Gulbranson and ran it back 26 yards for a touchdown to put the Cougars in front. The Beavers' subsequent drive ended with Darrius Clemons' 4-yard touchdown catch to tie it at 38 with 2:50 left. Oregon State got the ball back on the Cougars' series when Exodus Ayers recovered Kyle Williams' fumble on the Washington State 47. The Beavers went for it on fourth down to extend their final drive and Hayes nailed the winning field goal. Washington State's scramble at the end came up short. â€œI think when we tied it at 38, I kind of saw the clock and I was like, `All right, all we've got to do is get one stop and just get me in range, and hopefully we'll get that done and I'll make the kick," Hayes said. I have a lot of confidence in the team. Mateer passed for 250 yards and two touchdowns, and ran for 85 yards and two more scores for Washington State. First and foremost our guys gave us everything they had. I'm proud of them. I loved the way they responded this week, I thought we had a great week of practice. I appreciated this effort," Cougars coach Jake Dickert said.This is a players' game and they made one more play down the stretch. Oregon ++State opened the scoring with stand-in quarterback Gabarri Johnson's 15-yard keeper. The Cougars answered on the next drive with Mateer's 28-yard scoring pass to Carlos Hernandez before Dean Janikowski added a 33-yard field goal. Salahadin Allah'a had a 1-yard touchdown run to put the Beavers in front 14-10. Mateer scored on a 3-yard keeper to give the Cougars the lead, but Oregon State finished the half ahead 21-17 on Gulbranson's 1-yard TD dive with 13 seconds left. The Beavers opened the second half with Hayes' 46-yard field goal. Williams had a 57-yard catch-and-run touchdown from Mateer that tied the game at 24. But before the end of the third quarter, Gulbranson hit Jermaine Terry II with for 43-yard TD to set up the deciding fourth quarter. Since the Pac-12's collapse, the Beavers and the Cougs have worked together to rebuild the conference. In 2026, five Mountain West teams - as well as Gonzaga for basketball only - will join a new Pac-12. The conference still needs one more football member to meet NCAA requirements. The scheduling agreement with the Mountain West was not renewed for next season, so Washington State and Oregon State put together independent schedules with a twist - they will play each other twice, once in Corvallis and once in Pullman. Washington State: Going into the game, Mateer had 26 passing touchdowns (tied for fourth in the nation) and he'd rushed for 12 more, a Washington State single-season record for a quarterback. Oregon State: Gulbranson, who missed the Beaversâ€™ loss last weekend at Air Force, started. But the Beavers also used QB Gabarri Johnson situationally - including on Oregon State's first touchdown of the game.

WYOMING AT WASHINGTON STATE

PULLMAN, Wash. – Wyoming quarterback Evan Svoboda connected with tight end John Michael Gyllenborg for an 18-yard touchdown pass with 25 seconds left to propel the Cowboys to a 15-14 win against the Washington State Cougars, Saturday, at Gesa Field. Redshirt-sophomore quarterback John Mateer accounted for 238 total yards for WSU, including two first-half touchdowns to give the Cougars a 14-6 halftime lead, but WSU was shut out in the second half. Washington State wraps up the regular season with an 8-4 record while Wyoming finished its season at 3-9. Down 14-9 with 3:39 left, Wyoming embarked on a 14-play, 90-yard drive that was capped by Svoboda's touchdown pass to Gyllenborg, which gave the Cowboys their first lead of the game. The Cougars' comeback attempt was thwarted when Mateer was intercepted by Tyrecus Davis with three seconds remaining. A 37-yard touchdown pass from Mateer to Kyle Williams in the first quarter put the Cougars up 7-0. It marked the 29th TD pass of the season for Mateer, ninth-most on WSU's single-season list. It also pushed Williams over 1,000 yards receiving for the season and gave him his 13th touchdown catch of the year, tied for the second-most in WSU single-season history. After a Wyoming field goal, Mateer scored on a two-yard touchdown run to give the Cougars a 14-3 advantage. The Cougar defense registered six sacks, the most since a win over Colorado State in 2022, and forced three turnovers. The Cougars find out their postseason destination, Sunday, Dec. 8. It will be WSU's 19th overall bowl game for the program and ninth appearance since the 2013 season.

NO. 21 SYRACUSE VS. WASHINGTON STATE

SAN DIEGO (AP) -- Kyle McCord threw for 453 yards and five touchdowns to break Deshaun Watson's Atlantic Coast Conference season passing record and lead No. 22 Syracuse to a 52-35 victory over depleted-yet-scrappy Washington State in the Holiday Bowl on Friday night. LeQuint Allen rushed for 120 yards and two touchdowns for his second straight 1,000-yard season for the Orange (10-3), who had their first 10-win season since 2018. Fran Brown joined Paul Pasqualoni (1991) as the only Orange coaches since World War II to win 10 game in their first season. McCord, the national passing leader, came in with 4,326 yards, which was fifth on the ACC's season list, and needed 268 yards to break Watson's record of 4,593, which he set in 15 games in 2016 at Clemson. McCord broke the record by a yard on the Orange's first play of the second half on a 50-yard pass to Darrell Gill Jr., who made a beautiful over-the-shoulder catch. McCord finished with 4,779 yards. McCord was 24 of 34. Gill had 145 yards on four catches and Jackson Meeks had five catches for 110 yards. Trebor Pena and Oronde Gadsden each had two touchdown catches. The Cougars (8-5) lost their fourth straight game but were spirited despite losing coach Jake Dickert to Wake Forest, quarterback John Mateer to Oklahoma, both coordinators and the quarterbacks and running backs coach, as well as having more than 20 players enter the transfer portal. Zevi Eckhaus, who threw only seven passes in the regular season as Mateer's backup, threw for 363 yards and three touchdowns, with two interceptions. Kyle Williams had 10 catches for 172 yards to break Dez Bryant's Holiday Bowl record of 168 yards receiving in 2008.

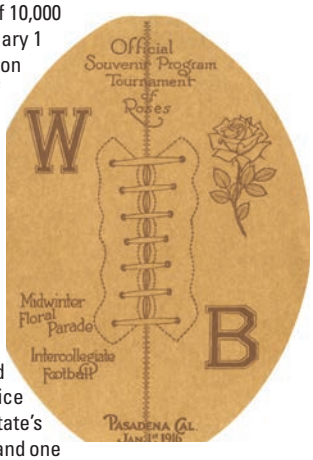
WSU 14, BROWN 0



January 1, 1916, Pasadena, Calif. – A crowd of 10,000 was on hand at the Pasadena Rose Bowl January 1 to watch as undefeated Washington State took on eastern power Brown University in the first of the continuous Rose Bowls. WSU used third and fourth quarter touchdown runs by Ralph Boone and Carl Dietz to shutout the Bruins 14-0. Brown entered the game a two-to-one favorite, despite a modest 5-3-1 record. The Bruins' 3-0 win over Yale was the key accomplishment that earned the Rhode Island team an invitation to play in the Rose Bowl. A cold spell, followed by a heavy rain and some snow for three days prior to the game, turned the playing field into a sea of mud that slowed both teams. Brown came close to scoring twice in the first half, but each time Washington State's defense, which had allowed just one field goal and one touchdown all season, rose to the task and halted the Bruins short of the goal line, once at the four yard line. Bruin star Fritz Pollard gained just 47 yards in 13 carries. Pollard later became the first black named to a Walter Camp All-America team and was the first black head coach in the National Football League. In the second half WSU's size advantage began to pay off as the Cougars took command, scoring once in each quarter. WSU's preparation for the game had been, to say the least, odd. Coach William "Lone Star" Dietz, out of the Carlisle Indian School, and his Cougar squad served as extras in the football film "Tom Brown of Harvard" each morning, then practiced for the bowl game during the afternoon. Each WSU player earned $100 for the 14 mornings of movie work. During practice sessions, Dietz appeared in his "classic" coaching attire: a silk hat, Prince Albert cutaway coat, striped pants, yellow gloves, and a walking stick. Originally known as the Pasadena Tournament of Roses East-West game (it was 1923 when the real Rose Bowl facility was completed that the name changed), the WSU-Brown game was played at Tournament Park.

ALABAMA 24, WSU 0

January 1, 1931, Pasadena, Calif. - The Alabama Crimson Tide used a second-quarter blitz, including touchdown runs of one and 43 yards by quarterback Monk Campbell, to post a 24-0 win over previously undefeated Washington State in the 17th Rose Bowl game, viewed by 65,000 fans. Alabama's coach was Wallace Wade, who had been a member of the Brown University team that lost to WSU in the 1916 Rose Bowl. Wade, during his career, coached in five Rose Bowls.

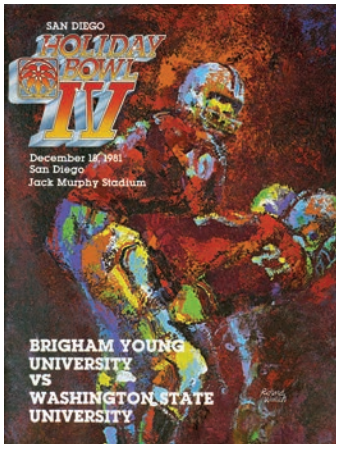
"Babe" Hollingbery's fifth Cougar team went a perfect 9-0-0 to earn a Rose Bowl berth in 1930, including a 6-0 mark during the Pacific Coast Conference schedule. Included in the list of Cougar victims were California 16-0, USC 7-6, Washington 3-0 and Villanova 13-0. Two members of the WSU team later earned recognition in the College Football Hall of Fame, Mel Hein and Glen "Turk" Edwards.

1981 HOLIDAY BOWL

#14 BYU 38, #20 WSU 36



December 18, 1981, San Diego - Three games in one was more than the 52,000-plus fans at San Diego's Jack Murphy Stadium paid for, but three games is what they saw as the Brigham Young Cougars held on to defeate the Washington State Cougars 38-36. The BYU squad won the first game, a 31-minute affair that generated a 31-7 lead for the team from Provo. The next 25 minutes just as convincingly belonged to WSU 29-7. In the end, however, the game belonged to BYU as much for defense as anything. They stopped the Pullman team with just over three minutes to play by forcing a punt, then ran out the clock to preserve the win. Jim McMahon, in his last collegiate game, completed 27 of 43 passes for 342 yards and three touchdowns. More importantly, he did not throw an interception. The WSU Cougars used the running of Don LaBomme and quarterback Ricky Turner to baffle the BYU team, especially in the second half. Turner gained 92 yards in 12 carries and scored twice, while LaBomme added 79 yards in 14 carries and scored once. Robert Williams and Mike Martin also scored for the Cougars. WSU's failure on a two-point conversion late in the third quarter, an interception BYU's Ron Holmoe returned 35 yards for a touchdown on the third play of the third quarter, and a key sack of Casper on WSU's last possession loomed big in a game that had numerous turning points.

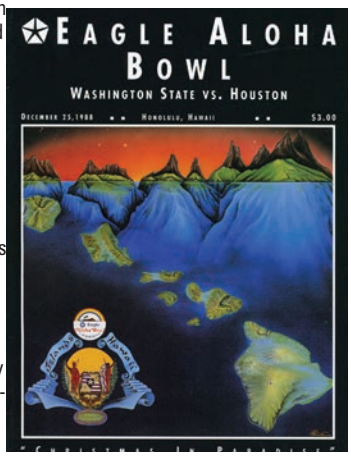
1988 ALOHA BOWL

#18 WSU 24, #14 HOUSTON 22



December 25, 1988, Honolulu - Washington State scored 24 second-quarter points and forced a last-second Houston turnover in notching a 24-22 win over the Texan Cougars Christmas Day. The bowl appearance was WSU's second of the 1980s and evened the Cougars bowl record to 2-2. In a close game there are many heros, but for WSU, none stood out more than senior Victor Wood. He picked up a fumble early in the second quarter and zipped five yards for a touchdown that put his Cougars ahead 7-3. On WSU's next possession, Wood caught a 15-yard scoring pass from Timm Rosenbach to put WSU up 14-3 and well on its way to a bowl victory viewed by a national ABC-TV audience. Wood's heroics were catching as WSU added a Jason Hanson 33-yard field goal and another touchdown, this one by Rosenbach, before halftime to put Washington State in command 24-9. WSU limited the Texas visitors to just five first half firstdowns, 46 yards rushing, and 77 yards passing before intermission. The Cougars picked off two Houston passes, one each by Shawn Landrum and Vernon Todd. In the end, however, it was Tuineau Alipate's hard hit that forced a Houston fumble recovered by Artie Holmes at the WSU five yard line. James Dixon was the recipient of Alipate's jarring tackle after catching a David Dacus pass over the middle that appeared for a moment to set up a potential game-winning score by Houston. The Cougars then controlled the ball for the final 2:44, with a key six-yard Rosenbach to Tim Stallworth pass giving WSU the much-needed first down just before the game ended.

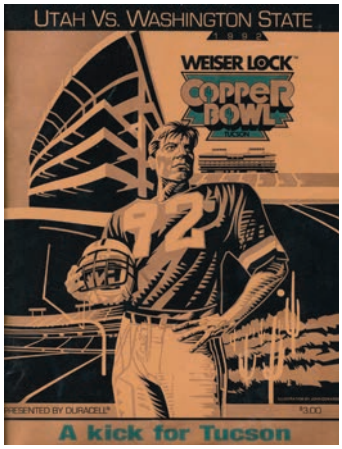
1992 COPPER BOWL

#18 WSU 31, UTAH 28



December 29, 1992, Tucson, Ariz. - Perhaps no college bowl game following the 1992 gridiron season was more offensive minded than the Copper Bowl matchup between WSU and Utah, but after all the running and passing that accounted for more than 1,100 yards, the deciding play was a 22-yard field goal by WSU's Aaron Price. The Cougars scored 21 unanswered points in the first quarter and one additional score just before halftime for a 28-14 lead. WSU then held on until Price gave them their final lead with 5:08 to play. Even then, they had to watch anxiously as Chris Yergensen's 20-yard chip shot sailed wildly to the left with 3:18 remaining. Though the 40,000-plus fans left the stadium talking about the offensive plays that stood out, it was WSU's defense in the fourth quarter that made this win possible. The Utes scored twice in the second quarter and added two more scores to pull even with a quarter to play. Both teams then turned to their defenses. The key play came with 6:29 to play when Utah's Frank Dolce avoided a strong WSU rush and hooked up with Henry Lusk on a short sideline pass. John Rushing then stripped Lusk of the ball and Singor Mobley scooped it up at the Utah 36 yard line. Fifteen yards later, at the Utah 21, Mobley was dragged down, setting up the Cougars with great field position. Drew Bledsoe immediately drove the Cougars to the Utah five yard line before turning the scoring chores over to Price. Like he did the closing seconds of WSU's 23-20 win over Arizona in the same stadium early in the season, Price came through with the kick. Bledsoe completed 30 of 46 passes for a school record 476 yards. Phillip Bobo caught TD passes of 87 (equalling a school record) and 48 yards, and Shaumbe Wright- Fair picked up 123 yards rushing and scored on a pair of three-yard line smashes.

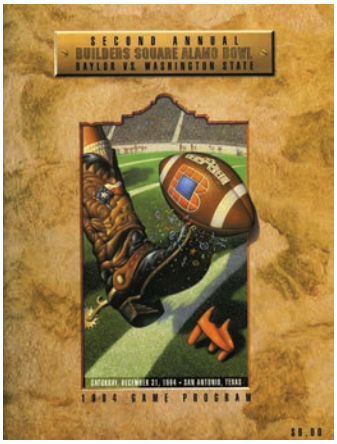
#24 WSU 10, BAYLOR 3



December 31, 1994, San Antonio - The Washington State offense scored on the opening drive of the game and on the last play of the second quarter to provide all the points the Cougar defense needed as WSU held off Baylor's late challenge in a 10-3 win at the second annual Builders Square Alamo Bowl before a crowd of 44,106. Despite some anxious moments in the closing seconds of the game, the Cougar defense made those 10 points stand up by limiting the record-setting Bear offense to eight first downs, 151 yards in total offense and just one field goal. The Cougars did something against Baylor they had not done all season, take the opening kickoff and drive the length of the field for a touchdown. The drive totaled 91 yards, equalling the longest scoring drive of the season, and ended when Kevin Hicks busted through the left side of the line from one yard out to put WSU on top 7-0. The score came six minutes, 32 seconds after the kickoff. WSU's offense provided three more points just before halftime to give the Cougs a 10-0 lead at intermission. Taking the ball after Baylor's Jarvis VanDyke missed his second field goal attempt of the first half, WSU drove from its own 30 yard line to the Baylor 20 yard line, where Tony Truant banged home a 37-yard field goal with two seconds left in the first half. A sideline pass to Jay Dumas for a key first down, then another similar pass to Albert Kennedy put the ball in perfect position for Truant. Davis, named the game's most valuable offensive player, hit six of eight passes on the drive. Davis, who completed 27 of 35 passes for 286 yards, gave Cougar fans a few anxious minutes in the third quarter when he took a hard blow to the back while scrambling out of the pocket. He was able to return one play later and finished the game. Defensively WSU was especially tough in the first half. Baylor came into the game averaging nearly 33 points per game and 382.4 yards per contest. In the first half WSU's defense, led by the game's most valuable defensive player, Ron Childs, limited the Bears to just 41 net yards, 24 rushing and 17 passing. Childs had 10 tackles in the game, including eight solo, of which two were for negative yardage. Only on its last possession did Baylor come close to the WSU endzone, where Todd Jensen, a senior who backed up John Rushing all year, picked off a Jeff Watson pass to halt any Baylor hope of scoring. The bowl victory was WSU's second in the last three years and third in seven years. Joining Childs defensively were Chris Hayes with seven tackles, Mark Fields with six and Chad Eaton with five.

#1 MICHIGAN 21, #8 WSU 16

January 1, 1998, Pasadena, Calif. - The Washington State Cougars, making their first Rose Bowl appearance in 67 years, pushed national champion and number one ranked Michigan to the last play of the game before falling to the Wolverines 21-16 before 101,219 fans and a world-wide television audience. The victory left Michigan a perfect 13-0 for the season, bumping the Cougars to a 10-2 record. After Michigan thwarted two WSU drives to start the game, the Cougar defense forced a Wolverine punt that would set up WSU's first scoring drive. The Cougs took over on the Michigan 47-yard-line with 6:26 to play in the first quarter. Ryan Leaf completed two passes during the drive, including a 15-yard touchdown toss to Kevin McKenzie with 3:17 left in the first quarter. Rian Lindell's point-after gave WSU the early 7-0 advantage. WSU came close to taking a 14-point lead, but Heisman Trophy winner Charles Woodson halted a WSU drive in the Michigan endzone when he intercepted a Leaf pass from the 12 yard line. The Wolverine's answering scoring drive began from their own 34-yard-line at the 8:04 mark in the second quarter and ended with a 58-yard pass from Bob Griese to Tai Streets that completed the first half scoring. Early in the second half, WSU took over 99 yards from the endzone after Michigan's Jason Vinson dropped a perfect punt just outside the endzone. Shawn Tims put the finishing touches on WSU's 99 yard drive in nine plays, taking a reverse handoff the final 14 yards. Leaf hit four of five passes in the drive that amassed 73 yards. Lindell's PAT attempt was blocked by Michigan's James Hall, leaving the WSU advantage at 13-7. The Wolverines responded immediately, moving the ball on their next possession to their 39 yard-line to set up another Griese-to-Streets touchdown combination, this time 58 yards. Baker's point-after gave Michigan their first lead, 14-13 with 6:07 left in the third quarter. Michigan then padded their lead with a 14-play, 77-yard drive that ended in Griese's third touchdown pass of the game, a 23-yarder to Jerame Tuman. Baker's extra-point kick increased the Michigan advantage to 21-13 with 11:21 to play. Washington State responded immediately with an eight-play, 49-yard drive that set up a 48-yard field goal by Lindell, cutting Michigan's lead to five points, 21-16 with 7:25 remaining. The Wolverines then put together a 51-yard drive that consumed almost seven minutes off the game clock. When Jay Feely's pooch punt rolled dead at the WSU seven-yard-line, the Cougars' victory hopes were 93 yards and 29 seconds away. After two incomplete passes, the Cougars faced third-and-10 with only 16 seconds left. Leaf then found Nian Taylor along the sideline for a gain of 46, to the Michigan 47-yard-line. After a delay of game penalty, Leaf hit Love Jefferson at the Michigan 25 and the Coug tight end lateraled to a streaking Jason Clayton, who managed nine more yards before being brought down in bounds at Michigan's 16 yard line with 0:02 on the game clock. Out of timeouts, WSU was forced to try and spike the ball on first-down, but officials ruled that the final two seconds slipped away before the ball was effectively downed, thus preventing WSU's one final shot at a major upset.

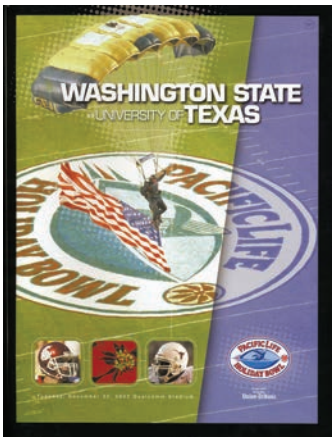
#15 WSU 28, #5 TEXAS 20



December 30, 2003 , San Diego, Calif. – Washington State reached the 10-win plateau for the third time in as many seasons with a 28-20 comeback victory over Texas in the Pacific Life Holiday Bowl. Facing a 10-7 halftime deficit, the Cougars rallied to score three touchdowns in the third quarter and take a 26-10 lead into the final stanza. The second half fireworks began with a 54-yard touchdown pass from Matt Kegel to Sammy Moore with just over nine minutes left in the third. WSU used a trick play to get in the end zone once again four minutes later. Kegel lined up under center, but instead of taking the snap, ran in motion to the right sideline, leaving running back Jonathan Smith alone in the backfield. Smith fumbled the snap, but recovered and ran 12 yards for a touchdown. Two Texas possessions later, the WSU defense continued the onslaught when Jason David recovered a fumble and took it 18 yards for the Cougs' final touchdown of the game. Washington State's defense forced a fourth quarter safety to push its total to 28. Moore earned most valuable offensive player honors after converting both of his catches for touchdowns and setting up another with a 51-yard punt return. Sophomore Kyle Basler was named the game's most valuable defensive player after pinning the Longhorns inside their own five on four occasions.

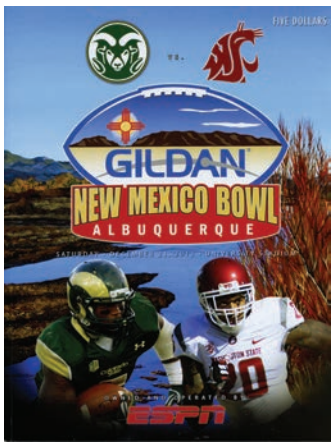
2013 NEW MEXICO BOWL

COLORADO STATE 48, WSU 45



December 22, 2013, ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. - With less than two minutes to play and Colorado State down by eight points, Shaquil Barrett knew the Rams needed the ball back quickly to finish an improbable comeback against Washington State. Once down by 22 points in the New Mexico Bowl, the Rams got their chance when Cougars running back Jeremiah Laufasa came barreling toward Barrett. That fumble, at the Cougars 33, set up Kapri Bibbs' 1-yard run score and Donnell Alexander's two-point conversion run that tied it at 45 with 33 seconds left. Then, Washington State's Teondray Caldwell fumbled a kickoff return at the 24, setting up Jared Roberts' 41-yard field goal with 3 seconds left that gave Colorado State a 48-45 victory. It was a quarterback shootout that saw close to 800 passing yards combined and a game largely dominated by Washington State until the last 2 minutes. And Colorado State did not have a led the entire game until that winning field goal. Garrett Grayson threw for 369 yards and Bibbs ran for 169 yards and three touchdowns for Colorado State (8-6). The Rams overcame three early turnovers. Meanwhile, Washington State's Connor Halliday threw touchdown passes to six receivers and finished with 410 yards for Washington State (6-7). Those six touchdown passes tied West Virginia's Geno Smith and Iowa's Chuck Long for an NCAA bowl record. After the first touchdown pass, Halliday got into a shouting match with a Colorado State coach when Halliday ran into the Rams' sideline. That exchange created a social media buzz and McElwain vowed to look into it. Washington State scored 35 points in the first half, but had only 10 in the second.

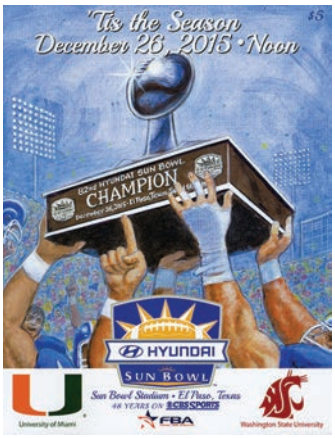
2015 SUN BOWL

WSU 20, MIAMI 14



EL PASO, Texas – Luke Falk threw two touchdown passes to lead Washington State to a 20-14 victory over Miami on Saturday in the snowy Sun Bowl. Erik Powell added field goals of 30 and 25 yards to help the Cougars (9-4) win a bowl game for the first time since the 2003 Holiday Bowl. Miami (8-5) lost its sixth consecutive bowl game. Washington State led 20-7 at the half and looked in total control, limiting Miami to three first downs over the second and third quarters. The Hurricanes rallied in a blizzard in the fourth. Braxton Berrios' 60-yard end-around run set up Mark Walton' 5-yard scoring run that cut it to 20-14 with 13:10 left. The Cougars, the top passing team in the nation during the regular season, were shut out in the second half, leaving it to their defense to wrap up the victory. Miami had a 5-yard touchdown pass from Brad Kaaya to Stacy Coley called back on a penalty with 5:14 to play. Two players later, Washington State's Marcellus Pippins recovered Walton's fumble at the 4. After a Cougars punt, the Hurricanes were at the Washington State 28, but an end-over-end halfback pass from Joe Yearby was easily intercepted by Shalom Lunai with 2:58 to play to seal it for Washington State. Falk, the game's MVP, was 29 of 53 for 295 yards and no interceptions. He threw touchdown passes of 31 yards to running back Jamal Morrow and 25 yards to receiver Gabe Marks. The scoring play to Morrow, during which he turned up the right sideline and carried two defenders into the end zone, gave Washington State a 7-0 lead. Miami tied it at 7 on a 4-yard pass from Brad Kaaya to Coley. The first quarter ended 7-7, but the Cougars ran off 13 straight points in the second. Kaaya was 17 of 30 for 219 yards with one interception. He appeared to give the Hurricanes a 14-7 lead in the second quarter when he connected in the end zone with receiver Rashawn Scott, but the ball came out of Scott's hands and was intercepted by Peyton Pelluer. One of the keys for the Cougars was winning the turnover battle, 3-1. Washington State fumbled in the second quarter, but the defense forced a three-and-out. On the next series, the Cougars used a 14-play drive to get Powell's first field goal and a 10-7 lead. Washington State made it 17-7 on Falk's TD pass to Marks, and Powell made it 20-7.

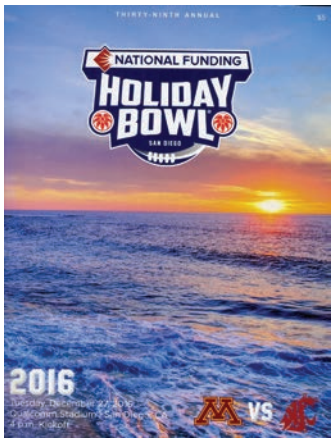
MINNESOTA 17, WSU 12



SAN DIEGO - Shannon Brooks caught a tipped pass from Mitch Leidner for a 13-yard, go-ahead touchdown in the third quarter and the Minnesota Golden Gophers, beset by turmoil after 10 players were suspended after a sexual assault investigation, upset Luke Falk and the Washington State Cougars 17-12 in the Holiday Bowl on Tuesday night. It was one of the few exciting plays in an otherwise pedestrian edition of what traditionally has been one of the country's most exciting bowl games. WSU cornerback Marcellus Pippins reached up with his right hand and deflected Leidner's pass in the end zone but it went right to Brooks for the TD and a 10-6 lead. That capped an 84-yard, 10-play drive on Minnesota's first possession of the second half. The Golden Gophers (9-4) were looking to regroup after backing down from a threat to skip this game if 10 teammates suspended after a sexual assault investigation weren't reinstated. Their boycott lasted less than 36 hours, with university leadership never blinking. The players backed down amid pressure from many who read details of the allegations. WSU (8-5) ended on a three-game losing streak and was held to its lowest point total of the season. The Cougars had scored more than 50 points four times this season, a school record. The Golden Gophers frustrated Falk most of the game, holding him to 264 yards - 86 below his average - on 30-of-51 passing. Falk didn't crack 200 yards until the final minutes, when he led a drive capped by an 8-yard TD pass to Kyle Sweet. After three tries due to Minnesota penalties, the conversion attempt failed. Minnesota then recovered an onside kick. Falk came in having completed 71 percent of his passes in throwing for 4,204 yards and 37 touchdowns. The Cougars were ranked second in the nation in passing. Falk was intercepted by Adekunle Ayinde on fourth down with 3:05 left. That set up Rodney Smith's 9-yard TD run with 2:06 left for a 17-6 lead. WSU lead 6-3 after a lackluster first half that included just three field goals. The Cougars couldn't get their vaunted Air Raid offense going and crossed the 50 just twice, getting field goals of 26 and 41 yards by Erik Powell. Powell's second field goal was set up when Nnamdi Oguayo hit Leidner and forced a fumble that Isaac Dotson recovered at the Golden Gophers' 38. Minnesota got a 43-yard field goal by Emmit Carpenter in the second quarter.

2017 HOLIDAY BOWL

NO. 18 MICHIGAN STATE 42, NO. 21 WSU 17

SAN DIEGO - Brian Lewerke threw for 213 yards and three touchdowns, and LJ Scott ran for 110 yards and two scores for No. 18 Michigan State, which took advantage of Luke Falk's absence to rout No. 21 Washington State 42-17 in the Holiday Bowl. Lewerke also rushed for 73 yards for Michigan State (10-3), which rebounded from a dismal 3-9 record last year to reach double digits in wins for the eighth time in program history. Falk, who was photographed earlier in the week with a cast on his left wrist, went through warmups but came out in street clothes at game time. He was replaced by redshirt sophomore Tyler Hilinksi, who made his first start and eighth appearance of the season. It's unclear precisely when Falk injured the wrist on his non-throwing hand, but he had issues with it throughout the season. Coach Mike Leach refused to give specifics during the week. Hilinski led WSU (9-4) to a 45-yard field goal by Erik Powell on the Cougars' second drive, but the Cougars were overpowered by the Spartans. Lewerke threw the first of two TD passes to Cody White, a 7-yarder midway through the second quarter, when he was flushed to the left but found the receiver in the back of the end zone. On MSU's next possession, Lewerke took the snap and glanced at his running back, which froze the secondary and allowed Felton Davis III to get wide open for a 49-yard scoring pass. Scott scored on a 3-yard run to give the Spartans a 21-3 halftime time. Early in the third, Lewerke rolled left and had his pass tipped, but a sliding White caught it for a 7-yard touchdown. Lewerke, who finished 13 of 21, was hit hard on a keeper in the third quarter and came out for a few plays. His backup, Damion Terry, scored on a 6-yard keeper to make it 35-3. The Cougars closed the gap when Hilinski threw a 14-yard touchdown pass to Tay Martin late in the third quarter and a 15-yarder to Tay in the fourth quarter. Scott scored on a 28-yard burst up the middle with about six minutes left to play. Hilinski was 39 of 50 for 272 yards and two touchdowns, with one interception. THE TAKEAWAY Washington State: It was the second straight lackluster Holiday Bowl for Leach's Cougars, who lost 17-12 to Minnesota last year. Besides being without Falk, leading receiver Tavares Martin Jr. was kicked off the team after the regular season and third-leading receiver Isaiah Johnson-Mack left the squad. Michigan State: Scott had his third 100-yard game of the season and ninth of his career. Felton had four catches for 118 yards.

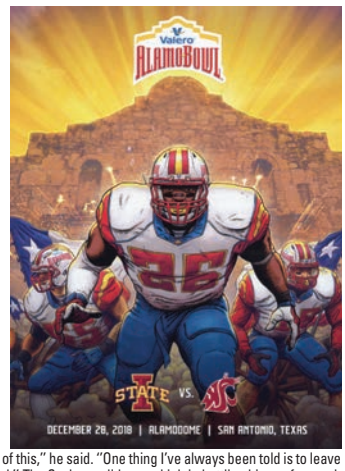
2018 ALAMO BOWL

NO. 12 WSU 28, NO. 25 IOWA STATE 26



SAN ANTONIO – Gardner Minshew II and that glorious mustache conjured up a final bit of magic in a grand finale for Washington State. The graduate transfer quarterback whose whiskered upper lip was loved and mimicked by Cougars fans all season, threw two touchdown passes and ran for another score in sending No. 12 Washington State to a 28-26 win over No. 25 Iowa State in the Alamo Bowl. Minshew's passing and scrambling earned the Cougars (11-2) a school record for wins in a season. He threw for 299 yards, none of them bigger than a play made out of desperation when Iowa State had all the momentum. After watching a 21-10 lead dwindle to 21-20 by early in the fourth quarter, the Cougars stripped the ball from Iowa State running back David Montgomery at the Cyclones' 30. Minshew, who had been held in check in the third quarter, escaped a third-down pass rush to flip a last-second shovel pass to Tay Martin that went for 20 yards. The play stunned the Cyclones, and Max Borghi scored on a 10-yard run the next play. It was just another big fourth-quarter moment for the transfer from East Carolina who coach Mike Leach had lured out West with the promise he could lead the nation in passing. Minshew was the nation's leading passer in yards per game this season and won the Johnny Unitas Award as the nation's top senior quarterback in a season the Cougars fell one game short of playing for the Pac-12 championship. Nearly all of his completions this season were more orthodox than the flip to Martin. None were bigger for the season and the legacy it set for the program. "I want to say thank you to these coaches, this university and these fans for taking me in," Minshew said. "So glad to be a part of this," he said. "One thing I've always been told is to leave a place better than we found it. This place could be really special." The Cyclones did a good job in bottling him up for much of the game. Iowa State's defense held Washington State 10 points and 135 yards below their season averages and two of the Cougars' touchdowns came on short drives after turnovers. But after Minshew found a way to get Washington State in the end zone, the Cougars' defense made the one play it had to at the end. Iowa State's last chance came after quarterback Brock Purdy scored from a yard out with 4:02 left. The Cyclones went for two, but a pass to Montgomery was stopped well short of the goal line after a false-start penalty pushed the line of scrimmage back to the 8. Iowa State had seven false start penalties and had two players ejected for targeting hits on Minshew. Purdy passed for 315 yards and Cyclones receiver Hakeem Butler caught nine passes for 192 yards, six yards shy of the Alamo Bowl record. Montgomery rushed for 124 yards. The Cyclones (8-5) had rallied from a 1-3 start to finish third in the Big 12, the program's best conference finish in 40 years. THE TAKEAWAY Washington State: Minshew completed 9 of 13 passes in the fourth quarter for 78 yards. After Iowa State's final touchdown, he completed three passes, two of them converting third downs, as the Cougars ran out the clock. Iowa State: Turnovers and targeting calls were critical. Purdy threw two first-quarter interceptions and Montgomery's fumble was a game-changer. Iowa State had two key defenders ejected in the second quarter for targeting hits to Minshew. TOUCHDOWN TAUNTING Washington State cornerback Marcus Strong had a long touchdown interception return wiped out in the first quarter when he was flagged for taunting on his way into the endzone. Strong stepped in front of a pass intended for Butler and had a clear path to the goal line. He was penalized because he held the ball out and looked back as Purdy made a futile dive for his feet. Instead of the score, the Cougars got the ball on the Iowa State 20 and scored two plays later when Minshew connected with Renard Bell.

2019 CHEEZ-IT BOWL

NO. 24 AIR FORCE 31, WSU 21

PHOENIX – Air Force clung to a three-point lead, the clock showing plenty of time left for one of the nation's most prolific offenses. A field goal was not going to be good enough. The Falcons needed a touchdown to leave Washington State no chance. Going for it on fourth down was the only option - and it worked. Kadin Remsberg ran for 178 yards and stretched to the pylon for a 3-yard touchdown on a late fourth down, lifting No. 24 Air Force to a 31-21 victory over Washington State in the Cheez-It Bowl on Friday night. The Falcons (11-2) had their triple option working to near perfection, grinding out 371 yards rushing while setting a Cheez-It Bowl time of possession record of 43:24. Donald Hammond III scored two touchdowns and Air Force carried a 10-point lead into the fourth quarter, yet couldn't shake the high-scoring Cougars. Anthony Gordon, the FBS passing leader, kept Washington State within reach, throwing for 351 yards and three touchdowns. He hit Brandon Arconado on a 13-yard TD to pull Washington State (6-7) within 24-21 late in the fourth quarter, giving the Cougars a shot at the comeback finish. Air Force methodically worked the ball down to Washington State's 4-yard line, but failed to punch the ball into the end zone on three tries. After a timeout, Hammond ran an option left and pitched the ball to Remsberg, who got the edge and reached the ball to the pylon with a defender draping him. The touchdown was upheld on review. The 2018 game was dubbed the Cheez-INT Bowl after TCU and California combined for nine interceptions. A year later, Air Force and Washington State brought philosophical differences to the desert. The Falcons like to stay grounded, running 57 times a game while finishing third in the FBS at 292.5 yards per game. The Cougars love to fly, putting it up 56 times a game to lead the nation with nearly 450 yards a game. Washington State started the Cheez-It Bowl quickly, racing down the field with a series of completions, only to get stuffed by an Air Force goal-line stand. The Falcons' opening drive was a yard-churning, clock-winding grind, covering 98 yards in 20 plays and 12:23. Hammond capped it with a 1-yard TD run. Air Force's next two drives took less time combined than the first, ending in Jake Koehnke's 28-yard field goal and Taven Birdow's 3-yard run after Gordon lost a fumble at Washington State's 23. The Cougars had two more quick-hitting drives to pull within 17-14 at halftime on Gordon's two TD passes. Air Force went right back to the ground to open the second half; 13 plays, 75 yards, capped by Hammond's 7-yard TD run. Washington State had another fourth-down failure, this one at Air Force's 5-yard line, but bounced back quickly with Gordon's TD pass to Arconado. The Cougars just couldn't stop Air Force and Remsberg's diving TD run capped another long scoring drive to seal it. THE TAKEAWAY Air Force won the line of scrimmage and its 11th game of the season, second only to 12-win seasons in 1985 and 1998. Washington State was hurt by the two failed fourth downs and its inability to decipher Air Force's triple option. FOURTH-DOWN DECISIONS Leach has been known as a gambler on fourth downs, often preferring to go for it over punting or kicking field goals. He stuck by his decisions at the Cheez-It Bowl, even though neither worked.

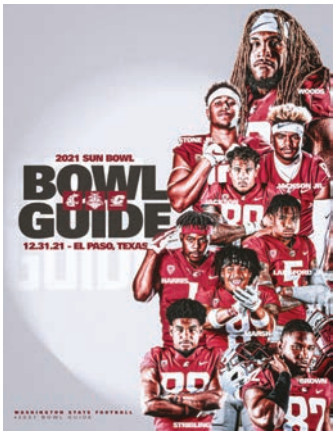
CENTRAL MICHIGAN 24, WSU 21



EL PASO, Texas – Lew Nichols III ran for 130 yards and a touchdown, leading late replacement Central Michigan to a 24-21 victory over Washington State in the Sun Bowl on Friday. The Chippewas (9-4) ended a five-game bowl losing streak with their fifth consecutive victory this season. When Boise State opted out of the Arizona Bowl because of COVID-19 issues, Central Michigan switched about 300 miles west from Tucson, Arizona, to the Texas border city of El Paso. Miami skipped the Sun Bowl for COVID-19 reasons as well. Central Michigan stayed in Arizona before bussing to El Paso the day before the game. Washington State (7-6) never could get its offense going in the first half, finishing with just 53 yards and trailing 21-0 at the break. The Cougars dropped to 8-9 all-time in bowls. The Cougars rallied in the second half behind backup quarterback Victor Gabalis, scoring three times to make it close. Gabalis was 12 of 23 passing for 180 yards and two TDs. After a 13-yard scoring toss to Lincoln Victor pulled the Cougars within three points with 3:13 remaining, they had another chance starting at their 14-yard line with 2:41 remaining. Central Michigan stopped Joey Hobert a yard short on a catch on fourth-and-5. Marshall Meeder kicked three field goals for Central Michigan, including a 52-yarder for a 6-0 lead and a 43-yarder for a 10-point lead early in the fourth quarter. THE TAKEAWAY Central Michigan: It was the first victory in a bowl against a Power Five opponent for the Mid-American Conference team. The Chippewas were seven-point underdogs. Washington State: The Cougars were without starting tackles Liam Ryan and Abe Lucas for coach Jake Dickert's first game on the sideline since having the interim tagged removed. Running backs Max Borghi opted out and Deon McIntosh did not play.

2022 JIMMY KIMMEL LA BOWL

FRESNO STATE 29, WSU 6

LOS ANGELES – Jordan Mims rushed for a career-high 205 yards and two scores, Jake Haener threw two TD passes and Fresno State completed the biggest in-season turnaround in Football Bowl Subdivision history with a 29-6 victory over Washington State in the LA Bowl on Saturday. Fresno State - which won the Mountain West Conference title - is the first team to get to 10 wins after dropping four of the first five. The Bulldogs (10-4) were 1-4 in early October before winning their final nine games. Mims accounted for 232 all-purpose yards and outgained Washington State, which had 182 offensive yards. Both of Mims' touchdowns were on direct snaps out of the Wildcat formation. Early in the second quarter, the senior went 4 yards around left end to give the Bulldogs a 14-0 advantage. In the fourth quarter, he carried it 2 yards up the middle to make it 29-6. Haener completed 24 of 36 passes for 284 yards in his final game for Fresno State. The senior connected with Zane Pope on a 22-yard touchdown to complete the Bulldogs' opening possession. He added an 11-yard score to Nikko Remigio late in the third quarter to extend the lead to 22-6. Cameron Ward was 22 of 32 for 137 yards for Washington State (7-6). Nakia Watson rushed for 33 yards and had the Cougars only touchdown in the third quarter, when he scored from 1 yard to bring Washington State within 16-6. GETTING DEFENSIVE Fresno State made it 16-0 on Washington State's ensuing possession with a safety. On third-and-14 from the Cougars' 3-yard line, Ward was pressured by Bulldogs' defensive lineman Leonard Payne Jr. and stepped on the end line in the back of the end zone. It was the second time in the last three games the Bulldogs have scored on a safety. THE TAKEAWAY Fresno State: The Bulldogs have won four straight bowl games and have their second consecutive season with double-digit victories. It also completes a great first year for Jeff Tedford, who is in his second stint at Fresno State after Kalen DeBoer left for Washington. Washington State: The Cougars have dropped their last three bowl games but were short-handed after both coordinators left for other positions. Washington State also was impacted at wide receiver and linebacker with players opting out of the game or putting their name in the transfer portal.

2024 DIRECTV HOLIDAY BOWL

NO. 21 SYRACUSE 52, WSU 35

SAN DIEGO (AP) -- Kyle McCord threw for 453 yards and five touchdowns to break Deshaun Watson's Atlantic Coast Conference season passing record and lead No. 22 Syracuse to a 52-35 victory over depleted-yet-scrappy Washington State in the Holiday Bowl on Friday night. LeQuint Allen rushed for 120 yards and two touchdowns for his second straight 1,000-yard season for the Orange (10-3), who had their first 10-win season since 2018. Fran Brown joined Paul Pasqualoni (1991) as the only Orange coaches since World War II to win 10 game in their first season. McCord, the national passing leader, came in with 4,326 yards, which was fifth on the ACC's season list, and needed 268 yards to break Watson's record of 4,593, which he set in 15 games in 2016 at Clemson. McCord broke the record by a yard on the Orange's first play of the second half on a 50-yard pass to Darrell Gill Jr., who made a beautiful over-the-shoulder catch. McCord finished with 4,779 yards. McCord was 24 of 34. Gill had 145 yards on four catches and Jackson Meeks had five catches for 110 yards. Trebor Pena and Oronde Gadsden each had two touchdown catches. The Cougars (8-5) lost their fourth straight game but were spirited despite losing coach Jake Dickert to Wake Forest, quarterback John Mateer to Oklahoma, both coordinators and the quarterbacks and running backs coach, as well as having more than 20 players enter the transfer portal. Zevi Eckhaus, who threw only seven passes in the regular season as Mateer's backup, threw for 363 yards and three touchdowns, with two interceptions. Kyle Williams had 10 catches for 172 yards to break Dez Bryant's Holiday Bowl record of 168 yards receiving in 2008.

ELIZABETH CANTWELL
WSU PRESIDENT

On February 6, 2025, the Washington State University (WSU) Board of Regents met in a special session to announce the selection of Dr. Elizabeth "Betsy" Cantwell as the university's 12th president. She is the first woman to hold the position in the university's 135-year history.

Cantwell came to Washington State University from Utah State University, where she successfully led a $1.3 billion annual operating budget spanning across the state of Utah in a 30-campus system. As president, she had significant achievements, including a record-breaking $495 million in sponsored research expenditures, a 10% increase in student scholarship funding, and the expansion of physical infrastructure with the groundbreaking of new education buildings and facilities, not to mention strengthened academic partnerships with industry leaders and a reorganization of the Academic Enterprise. Beyond her academic accomplishments, Cantwell demonstrated strong leadership in intercollegiate athletics, successfully navigating the complex landscape of modern college sports and engaging in the revitalization of the Pac-12 Conference.

Prior to her role at Utah State University, Cantwell held senior leadership positions in research and innovation at the University of Arizona and Arizona State University. At the University of Arizona, she oversaw a research portfolio exceeding $825 million annually. During her tenure at Arizona State University, she spearheaded the impressive growth of their research enterprise, increasing annual research expenditures from $435 million to $680 million in just three years.

Cantwell's career also includes extensive service to U.S. national security. She held leadership roles at Lawrence Livermore National Laboratory and at Oak Ridge and Los Alamos national laboratories. Her work advanced critical missions in energy, defense, and space exploration, collaborating with key federal agencies such as the Department of Energy (DOE), the Department of Defense (DOD), NASA, and the National Nuclear Security Administration (NNSA).

Cantwell holds an MBA from the University of Pennsylvania's Wharton School; a doctorate in mechanical engineering from the University of California, Berkeley; and a bachelor's degree in human behavior from the University of Chicago.
